

RECOVERY FROM DISASTER

FIG Working Week 2016

The theme, “recovery from disaster,” reflects New Zealand’s experience recovering from the 2011 Christchurch earthquake.

Working Week 2016 is an exciting opportunity for members of the survey profession to network with their International peers, hear the latest developments in surveying, and learn about the important contribution surveying and spatial information has made to Christchurch’s recovery and rebuild.

<https://www.gim-international.com/content/article/fig-working-week-4>
