

ARGOS Electric UAV

CATUAV, Spain, has developed an electric version of the ARGOS UAV platform designed specifically to meet the demands of CSIC's MESTRAL project. This new platform will enable images to be obtained simultaneously in the thermal, NIR and visible spectrums in Alfacs Bay in a single one-hour flight.

The new ARGOS Electric has successfully completed the testing phase and will be ready to enter service in early September.

<https://www.gim-international.com/content/article/argos-electric-uav>
