

BECOME A SATLAB GEOSOLUTIONS PARTNER

SatLab Is Looking to Expand Its Dealer Network in Europe

SatLab Geosolutions is the Swedish based global satellite positioning solutions company; from field surveying to aerial mapping, SatLab offers hardware, software and integrated solutions to enhance their users' mobility. SatLab is constantly expanding its market both horizontally and vertically and now actively looking for global partners, especially in Europe.

Founded by a group of passionate and pioneering engineers, with a total of more than 40 years of experience in the GNSS industry, the management team is made up of veteran industry experts. With offices strategically located around the world. Focusing on research and development, the Satlab Geosolutions team works around the clock to create innovative products for surveying professionals across the globe, providing comprehensive geospatial solutions for a wide range of industries.

Wondering what it is like to be a SatLab dealer?

Here you will find more detailed information about the benefits of being SatLab Partner.

View SatLab dealer benefits

SatLab Geosolutions is constantly expanding its market both horizontally and vertically and actively looking for global partners especially in Europe.