

Cadcorp Appoints Richard Rollins As Marketing Manager

Cadcorp (UK) has appointed Richard Rollins as marketing manager. Reporting to board member and sales and marketing director Martin McGarry, Mr Rollins takes on responsibility for Cadcorp's global marketing strategy. He has over 12 years marketing, business development and consulting experience within the GIS and location-based industry. Recently Mr Rollins worked as an interim management consultant to the UK's National Land Information Service (NLIS) Hub, where he successfully worked to accelerate participation in NLIS e-conveyancing and related e-government programmes.
