

Expansion Topcon Survey Sales Team

Topcon Positioning Systems has expanded the regional survey sales team, appointing Matthew Marchioni as regional survey sales manager for the Central US territory and Matthew Lehman as regional survey sales manager for the Western US territory.

Marchioni has a degree in communications and more than 19 years of sales experience in the surveying industry. He gained the majority of his sales experience working for Mingolo Precision Products, Inc. for nearly 18 years and most recently was employed at Keystone Precision Instruments as a sales representative.

Lehman has a degree in economics and political science and more than 20 years of sales experience in mobile computing solutions. Most recently, Lehman was employed with Trimble Navigation as a sales manager leading direct and dealer sales.

Denny Welch, senior vice president of the TPS Survey Business Unit said of the additions of Marchioni and Lehman, "We are very pleased to add two quality sales people of Marchioni and Lehman's caliber to our regional sales management team. They bring the experience and industry relationships that will serve our dealer network well. I look forward to watching our survey business strengthen through their contributions."
