

Participate in the GIM International UAS Special

This spring, GIM International will publish its fourth annual UAS Special bringing you details of the very latest exciting developments relating to unmanned aerial systems. The digital version of this UAS Special will be released on our website in April. Printed copies will be distributed to our readers across the globe and at GeoBusiness, AUVSI's Xponential, Intergeo and the Commercial UAV Expo. To learn more about advertising opportunities in this issue, please contact key account manager Sybout Wijma: sybout.wijma@geomares.nl.
