

Second GIM International UAS Special in Spring

After a very successful and well-received first edition, GIM International is now planning to publish a second UAS special, bringing you details of the very latest developments relating to UAS. The magazine is scheduled for publication in spring 2014 and will be distributed at many relevant shows such as the ASPRS 2014 Annual Conference, Intergeo Eurasia, AUVSI Unmanned Systems 2014, ICUAS'14 and more.
